Friends of the European Union Film Festival

...a unique opportunity to participate in one of Toronto's most important cultural events!

About the Festival

- EUFF is the official film festival of the European Union Consulates and Cultural Institutes in Toronto including Alliance Française, Goethe-Institut, Instituto Italiano di Cultura; EUFF is the largest European Film Festival and European Union event in Toronto and currently in its 8th Edition
- EUFF MISSION: To present a Free Film Festival reflecting the excellence, innovation and diversity of European cinema as well as attract and connect diverse groups such as students, professionals and mature audiences (Canadian, European and International). Engage in collaborations, partnerships and dialogues between EU countries and Canada while celebrating the culture of Europe in the heart of one of the most multi-cultural cities in the world
- 2011 EUFF HIGHLIGHTS: EUFF 2011 attracted an enthusiastic audience of 8,000 to films and events with 24 films from 24 EU Countries; numerous capacity screenings, each with 394 attendees. Invitational Opening Reception with 240 attendees including EUFF partners, consulates, and media. The EUFF website received 152,000 individual hits, generated 30 independent sources of media and was talked about on European/Canadian co-production films
- 2012 EUFF: 2 weeks of award-winning films from EU Countries, guests and special events: Invitational Opening Night Reception for consulates, partners and media as well as a Designated Festival Bar for consulates, partners and festival audiences to gather before and after films
- 2012 EUFF MEDIA & MARKETING: The European Union Film Festival continues to expand providing extensive opportunities to reach audiences while attracting targeted visibility throughout the Greater Toronto Area. Specialized EUFF audiences include multiple demographics: professionals, mature audiences and students
- SEVEN YEARS AFTER THE FESTIVAL'S PREMIERE, THE FESTIVAL IS THE LARGEST EUROPEAN FILM FESTIVAL IN TORONTO

Participating EU Countries: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden.*

Celebrate with the European Union Film Festival November 15-28, 2012 at The Royal Cinema, 608 College St., Toronto, ON
